OUR MISSION: TO ASSIST YOU IN MANAGING YOUR BLOOD GLUCOSE LEVELS
The World Health Organisation (WHO), the highest nutrition authority in the world, has recently stated that all people should eat a high carbohydrate diet based on low Glycemic Index (GI) foods. The GI is determined by actual tests and does not rest on assumptions of what effect a product has on blood glucose.